Two days of rain have set us back, unfortunately.

Itasca did re-open today and all trucks have successfully dumped.

I've asked Herod Trucking for as many trucks they can put on us today. They are working to add a couple more to the 5 we currently have from them.

Capstone trucks did dump but won't get back in time today. They are confirmed for tomorrow morning.

Select backfill (and a few loads of topsoil) are confirmed all week until we shut them off.
